

Beaufort College Adult Education Terms and Conditions

- Course fees: All applicants for courses/Programmes are required to pay course fees, as advertised, in full on enrolment.
- LMETB allows a 20% discount for those in receipt of social welfare on all hobby style classes. This applies only when the same person is paying for the course and not receiving funding from an outside body. A completed social welfare discount form must be furnished in order to process discount. If Social welfare form is furnished after enrolment, discount will be refunded by card or cheque.
- If third party funding is approved for a course documentary evidence of this must be provided along with a deposit (25% of course fee) to secure place on enrolment. This deposit will be refunded subject to payment by funding body at end of course. In the event that a participant is in breach of terms and conditions laid down by funding body, ie. By not completing the course, participant will be personally liable for full course fee.
- There are minimum numbers required before classes can be formed and classes may be cancelled if this minimum number is not reached. Only courses with sufficient numbers to be economically viable should proceed.
- Places allocated on first paid basis.
- Fee non-refundable once class forms.
- Full course refunds can only be issued to applicants in the following circumstances:

* If a class fails to form due to insufficient numbers enrolling.

* Where an applicant indicates in writing, that they are no longer able to continue with a course due to extenuating circumstances (e.g. Ill health). All written requests for a refund of fees will be considered by the School /college Adult Education Director or the AEO as appropriate.

* Refunds of fees once sanctioned by LMETB either in full or partial, once processed are issued to the applicant by way of LMETBs online payment system or Cheque.

Fees cover cost of class tuition, where class materials or the hire of specialist equipment is involved the cost will be carried by the learners. Please ensure class is going ahead before buying materials. Email amoran.bft@lmetb.ie
